Merchant Information

Please Read the Rules Carefully Before Signing!

1. Merchants must meet all State and Local Legal Requirements to sell goods and services within the State of Colorado and Jefferson County.
2. Merchants will furnish all required permits, if applicable, upon request.
3. Dragonfest of Colorado, Inc. reserves the right to exclude the sales of any merchandise deemed inappropriate.
4. The sale of alcohol is strictly prohibited, except for pre-bottled herbal or homeopathic tinctures of 5 ounces or less.
5. Merchants selling knives, swords, axes and/or any items which would commonly be called a weapon may only sell to individuals 18 years or older. Dragonfest of Colorado, Inc. requires all vendors assure that an accompanying adult is present before allowing any minor into any area where these items are displayed. These items must be securely tagged or taped to their sheath when sold.
6. Each merchant booth must have its own fire extinguisher of 3lb or larger size displayed at all times in a visible and easily accessible location.
7. Merchant Booth setup is on Tuesday August 2, 2016 10AM-8PM
8. Please bring your own structure, tables and chairs, as they will not be provided by the retreat.
9. You are responsible for ensuring your booth and camping areas are completely free of any trash or debris on your departure from the retreat. All packing materials must be packed out unless there is room in the recycling roll-off container after 6pm on Sunday August 7, 2016.
10. All members of Dragonfest, including merchants, agree to the policy of leaving the land in better condition than we found it in. Merchants that fail to completely clean their booth site at the conclusion of the retreat will not be allowed to participate in Merchants Row the following year.
